

Matt Ball, *Instructor

Matt started off dancing when he was 13 years old after a 5 year career as a competitive gymnast with the University of Calgary Dino's. Initially he trained with the Young Canadians School of Performing Arts in Jazz, Ballet, Partnering, and Musical Theatre and was not introduced to hip-hop until he was about 15. After a trip to train at the Edge Dance Studio in Los Angeles, Matt fell in love with hip-hop dance and has been hard at work mastering its many styles ever since, now making a two week trip to LA for training, an annual event.

He has taught, performed, and been instructed in dance in cities ranging from Las Vegas, Vancouver, New York, and Toronto with choreographers and dancers for artists including Justin Timberlake, Janet Jackson, and Usher. In 2007 he taught a series of break-dance and funk workshops in Australia with the Hip-Hop dance crew Wildcard Productions and is now busy planning the 2009 tour. Matt is a true devotee to the original west coast funk styles of popping and locking and is also a competitive break dancer making use of his gymnastics background to bring exciting tricks and moves into his classes. He looks forward to sharing his love and knowledge of the hip-hop culture with all of your students.

We at SoundKreationS are confident that you and your students will be delighted with Matt Ball's presence within your classroom!
