

Nicole Pemberton, Instructor

Nicole is pursuing her BA with a major in dance at the University of Calgary. She is a graduate of the Grant MacEwan dance program where she studied Modern dance and choreography. Nicole is trained in African, Modern (Horton, Dunham and, Graham technique), Jazz, Hip-Hop, Funk, Afro-Cuban, Brazilian and Ballet dance.

Originally from St. Albert, Nicole grew up dancing at the Dancers Academy. In 1998 she moved to Toronto and performed as a member of Ballet Creole's professional company for 7 years. Nicole also instructed Hip Hop and Funk at Ballet Creole. In Toronto, Nicole has worked with Canboulay Dance Theatre, Companie Kafig, and various hip-hop and contemporary choreographers. She has been featured in BravoFact videos directed by Seth-Adrian Harris. Nicole teaches several recreational and competitive dance classes around Calgary. Her choreography has been showcased at Dance Montage 2007 and Alberta Dance Explosions 2008. In 2007-08, she was selected by Lululemon Athletica to represent the Calgary dance community. Her classes are energetic, challenging and encouraging!

We at SoundKreationS are confident that you and your students will be pleased with Nicole Pemberton within your classroom this week.
